Hi all,

I was locked out of email until just a few minutes ago. Yes, the manuscript is resubmitted.

Thanks,
John

Hi Everyone,

I hope you are all doing well! Have you heard any more updates about the Science manuscript?

This is from last week but I did not have a chance to share it until now.

I don't think the CAS # for the Solvay replacement is listed in this lawsuit, but I thought that the concepts might be relevant to it as well.
